

A CALL TO WORSHIP

Liturgy of the Palms

By: Joy Bronson

Famed author Octavia Butler prepared for us at such a time as this these words: “All that you touch
You Change.
All that you Change

Changes you.
The only lasting truth is Change.
God is Change.”

In this time of deep uncertainty—of Lenten season, COVID-19, and physical distancing from even those we dearly love

We hold that:
While God may not call upon us the change that we are experiencing God is with us in it
God is with us through it
And God is greater

We are all God’s
God is in, and so with each and all of us

And so, wherever we each and all are In gathering to God
We are gathered together

We pray and look forward to being together in one place again And

We honor and we live the blessing that is God’s presence And God’s presence through us Everywhere that we are.
Together.

Amen.
